CLASS OF '36 REUNION

The Class of '36 met together the weekend of Oct. 14 and 15 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Graduation. The Committee in charge consisted of Ruth Phillips Gubb, Doreen Murphy and Kay Boyle. They are most grateful to Sister de Sales and Miss Grace Murphy for their help and cooperation and to Sister Superior for her kind hospitality. Everyone was delighted that so many could attend, some 25 in all, and those that came from a distance felt that it was well worth while to see everyone again.

Those attending were: Pauline Betson McCowatt, Lillian Dawson Sedgewick, Ruth Phillips Gubb, Aileen Reynolds Tudhope, Dot Taylor Hines, Kay Boyle, Margaret Hartery O'Hagan, Judy Dillon Roche, Doreen Murphy and Anne Malloy Hall of Toronto; Ethel MacMillan Stemp and Alice Botting Fletcher of Agincourt, Ont.; Rosella Lee Harding, Mary Donahue McGregor and Marion Valiquette Harrison, of Port Credit, Ont.; Ida Oleskevitch Badger of Burlington, Ont.; Claire O'Hagan Thompson of Ottawa, Ont.; Doris Vandervoort McCormick of St. Catharines, Ont.; Margaret Snell of New York City, N.Y.; Eileen Scully Dickie of Bracebridge, Ont.; Margaret Salkeld Hunks, Middleport, Ont.; Sally Stillman Wilkins of Woodstock, Ont.; Bernadette Jones Maier of Rochester, N.Y.; Margaret Mary Murphy Sanderson of Stoney Creek, Ont.; and Helen Smith Karner of Fonthill, Ont.

Telegrams were received from Marywinn Slipper Jamieson of Vancouver, B.C.; Mary Macdonnell Doyle of Ottawa and Rita Redmond Cooke of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Letters full of news were received from Betty Lee Agostini and Eleanor Pond Hill of Trinidad, B.W.I.; Noreen Hickey Carr of Boisetown, N.B.; Edith Murphy Carroll and Mary Holden Hogan of Newfoundland, Elsie Cochrane Hoffman of Long Island, N.Y.; Mary Krane Newell of National City, California and Rev. Sister M. Vianney of Comox, B.C.

The festivities started with dinner at the Savarin Restaurant where the ice was broken for all. It was 10 years ago that we held our last reunion and many of us had not seen each other since that time. After dinner, Doreen Murphy held Open House at her home and it was there that all the wallets were passed with snap-shots and stories exchanged. Anyone listening would think an owl was present, for in going from group to group all one could hear was who? who? We were all touched and so pleased at Doreen's welcome in the form of a centrepiece of beautiful flowers in the School colours of red and white and a large cake decorated in our colours with the inscription — Class of 1936.

On Sunday the group attended Mass in the Residence Chapel, which held many memories for us, for during our training days it was our lecture room. We then were guests of the Sisters for breakfast in the Cafeteria which was new for many of us. Here Sister de Sales saw that everyone was well taken care of and chatted with the group. We had hoped that Sister Jeanne, Sister Collette, Sister Jeanette and Grace Murphy would be with us there, but due to illness Sister Jeanette was the only one who could meet with us. We appreciated her thought of us since she came down from Morrow Park to be with her former "probies". After breakfast, Sister de Sales took us on a tour of the Hospital and Residence where we all found so many changes and advances. Sister gave us all of her morning and nothing was too much trouble for her.

After the tour the group dispersed to continue their visiting with each other. It was agreed by all that actually other than the changes time makes, no one had really changed and that the 25 years seemed just like yesterday.

✓ Isabel Sinclair Carty died suddenly in St. Michael's Hospital on September 23. Isabel was graduated from St. Michael's in 1933. To her daughter Carol, a 1957 graduate of St. Michael's, and the other members of her family our sincere sympathy.

Margaret O'Meara died in St. Michael's on September 29. Margaret was graduated in 1904 and was over the years a loyal and helpful member of the Alumnae. Her professional life was spent in private duty. During the 1919 influenza epidemic she, with her sister Ann, cared for patients in her home. To Ann, also a St. Michael's graduate, and the other members of her family our sincere sympathy.

Marion Weldon Blastorah died in St. Michael's Hospital on October 25th. Marion was graduated from St. Michael's in 1948. Her untimely death saddened her classmates and many friends. Our sympathy to her husband, Dr. Blastorah, her mother and family, and her four young children.

Gertrude Mulhall, a graduate of St. Michael's in 1924, died in Cobourg on November 26th. Gertrude was born in Cobourg and attended school in Grafton. Her professional life was spent in private duty nursing. To her brother and sisters our sincere sympathy.

Mayme Doherty Ingoldsby, a graduate of St. Michael's Hospital in 1917, died in Brampton Hospital, January 15, 1962.

After graduation she engaged in private duty nursing until her marriage. She spent her married life in Brampton where she was known as a hospitable and friendly member of the community. Mayme will be greatly missed by all. Our sincere sympathy to her husband and family, her sister and brothers.

Theresa Huntley, daughter of the late George and Mary Huntley died February 6, 1962.

A graduate of St. Michael's, Theresa was an ardent and efficient nurse. She engaged in Private duty for some years and one of the first to render her services in the time of distress in her community. Her greatest achievement was in serving the patients in Our Lady of Mercy Hospital for 29 years. A service she loved, after which time she took over duties in the office at the Nurses' Residence.

Our deepest sympathy to her brothers, nephew and nieces.

SPECIALIST, 77, HEADED SECTION AT ST. MICHAEL'S

Dr. Joseph X. Robert, 77, died at St. Michael's Hospital where he had been a specialist in diseases of the ear, nose and throat.

Dr. Robert had been head of St. Michael's otolaryngology department for 35 years until he retired in 1950. He continued to practice until last month, despite a series of illnesses.

Born in Chatham, Dr. Robert graduated from the University of Toronto in 1906. He interned at St. Michael's Hospital and took postgraduate work at Birmingham, England. He became a member of the Royal College of Surgeons, a licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians, and was appointed to the staff of St. Michael's Hospital on his return to Canada.

He was active in baseball, soccer and hockey while at the University of Toronto and was captain of the Yorkshire Cricket Club while studying in England.

He also was president of Lakeview Golf and Country Club in 1929-1930 and a director of the Ontario Golf Association. He was a member of Rose-dale Golf Club and played golf until two years ago. A member of the Granite Club, he was an ardent curler.

He leaves his wife, Pauline; a son, Paul; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and three sisters.
